ME

“ Grandma, you were so much of my heart that is now empty. I wish in your last few years of life I was around more. I have such good memories to share with your great grandbaby but always ask myself if I was around more what other good memories I would have to share. You were such a strong woman who I very much loved, and looked up too. I till this moment still get called little mary and I couldnt smile any bigger. I love you so much and miss you and as much as I do grandma I know you are right where you are supposed to be.

“ The memories of those we've loss are beacons to guide our way out of the darkness into the light of day isaiah 43:2 When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee don't worry my child you're in good hand and you just rest in peace and let those things go that you have going on at the present time ok everythings will be ok you hear and it hurt to lose a love one that had dies and gone on to be with jesus and you just let them go for now ok and you'll see them again one day in heaven and he'll always be with you in your time of loss and your love one that had dies and gone on to be with jesus does't want you to worry about them and that everythings will be just fine ok don't worry
