“ *My deepest condolences to Mrs. Ahuna's family and friends; while no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain don't exist, for "the former things have passed away". “ Evelyn was the only sister of my father, Hugh M Hampton, Sr. My first memory of her from my childhood was a straw doll that she sent me as a gift from Panama along with a black and white picture of herself for my parents. In the photograph, she had long blonde hair and was elegantly dressed for an evening out. I thought she was the most beautiful person I'd ever seen. Through the years I found her not only beautiful but also smart, thoughtful, loving, resourceful, resilient, and always fun to be with. As a young woman, my husband and I visited her in Hawaii and met Mike, Mark, Nettie, Glen and Joe Ahuna. We visited again when our son Bobby was 3 years old. Soon after, Evelyn and her boys moved back to North Carolina and we had a string of McFadden family reunions. With passage of time, it became clear that she had passed her traits and her strong faith along to her children and grandchildren. With much love and sympathy to Mike and Mark and their families from Laura and Randy Coker, and Bob Wall, Jr.

“ Evelyn is also survived by me, her stepdaughter, who she helped my father raise since age 10 until age 18 when I left home. I sent condolence cards to my half-brothers, Mark and Mike Ahuna, and sent a standing flower arrangement by Ava's Flowers in Mooresville to Cavin-Cook Funeral Home with a card that reads: "I love you. I will always remember you with love, Leanette". Evelyn and I shared many good memories and chats together. She taught me how to cook, bake, sew, mend, iron, clean house, grocery-shop on a budget, child care, etiquette, and we must have played Scrabble a zillion times, which taught me spelling and word definitions. I loved to hear her laugh. She dearly loved her sons, Mike and Mark Ahuna, and I believe that she never stopped loving my father, Joseph Ahuna. I'm thankful that I was able to chat with Evelyn in her last days to say "I love you". Rest assured, we'll be together again, Evelyn, when it's my time. Aloha Nui Loa, (With much love)Leanette Due to unforeseen circumstances, I will be unable to attend Evelyn's Funeral Service on Jan. 3rd.

“ Evelyn is our first cousin who was always full of vigor and life in all aspects of the family life - encouraging, providing information, remembering all those event that brought the family together, and remaining a stalwart member of her community and our larger family. She continued those attributes into her later years in Mooresville with her immediate and extended family and neighbors.She and my Mother, her Aunt Ada Mae who helped raise her, were life-long friends; Evelyn was always supportive and a blessing to her and to us children who adored Evelyn. Carolyn, Bill, Penny and I are extremely sad at her passing and will miss her deeply.
