“ I woke up this morning, and for some strange reason was thinking of Leslie. I had not spoken to her in about 3 years. The last time I saw her was early in 2015, when I came down to Moorsville to wax her car, and help with some odd jobs she had. Only today have I found that she passed a few months after that. Leslie was Wonderful. I will miss her smile, and her sense or humor. She saw the World the way I wish I could. She loved Music, and she loved her Family. Sleep Well Angel. I will never forget you.

“ Dearest Leslie, how your mother and sister must be feeling at this time, my sincerest and deepest condolences go out to them both. You came into our lives when you and I were so young. I remember your smile and your laughter and your beautiful "southern bell" accent that we all loved so much. I can still see you in the purple dress you wore to my wedding as my bridesmaid so many years ago. You left a big print on all of us in this part of the world. You will forever be in my thoughts. “ My sincerest condolences to Leslie's mother, sister, sweet young nieces and her entire family as well as all of her friends which were a very deep part of her extended family. Leslie was one of GOD's Angels and she was quick with a smile and a gleam in her beautiful blue eyes to always make those around her feel welcome, She impacted my life from the day I met her. She was trustworthy, enchanting, charismatic, funny and most of all...very loyal. She will be dearly missed on this earth that we all roam and she saw more corners of the planet than most. For that I am pleased that although she left us very young, she experienced much. She will always be remembered and she will be missed daily as there are so many things that happen in our day to day activities that she had suggestions or ideas about....and this is something that will keep us all remembering her spirit, smile and genuine self. Always helping and always sharing whatever she had with others, My prayers are with all of her family and friends during these trying times. Rest in Peace Dear Leslie...you will Always Be Loved

“ I was so shocked and saddened to hear of Leslie's passing this week through a mutual high school friend. Leslie was one of my best friends all throughout junior high and high school, and though I hadn't seen her in many years since our 10-year reunion in 1998, I thought of her often and with deep affection in my heart. Less than two weeks ago I had just posted on FB the one photo I had of her with a group of friends at my 12th birthday party, I hope she saw it and knew I was thinking of her. I send my sincerest sympathies to her family and friends, with a great sadness in my heart.
