“ My deepest condolences. Marybelle meant so much to me growing up. I looked up to her as my big sister - she would advise me as to what the right thing to do was. She made going to Gotham Ave a real pleasure - always enjoyable visits - great volleyball games in the yard. Growing up with her and her brother, my best friend, Robert, made all the activities on Gotham Ave great memories which will remain with me for the rest of my life. I still crave & miss Gertie's home cooked dinners - especially the meatloaf! The Duncan's meant as much to me as my own family. Marybelle was a special person and will be truly missed. Jamie - your mom was always so proud of you from the day you were born. If there is anything that you may ever need do not hesitate in calling. Our deepest sympathy & condolences - Vinny Nocella and Mary
