“ My deepest condolences to Mrs. Sloop's family and friends; while no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for "the former things have passed away".

“Mrs. Mattie Sloop, my MaMaw, was a beautiful and faithful lady. We were blessed through her. She was our anchor. One Hundred years of life . . . I can not begin to tell what she meant to everyone but to me she was a treasure. Memories of gardening, sewing matching dresses for the grand daughters, helping her clean the church, Christmas time in her front living room with the smell of cedar, peeking in her vanity and wearing her perfumed powder, Sunday dinners, playing with the cousins, The Price is Right :) . . . I'm smiling while I remember her. Quiet, sometime stubborn, but always direct and right to the point. She loved her Lord and her family. I know she is enjoying the street of pure gold and the gates of pearls. Love to you MaMaw!
