“ I am sorry to hear about Max. My best memory of him is as a basketball coach. His sweeping, underhand layup was a classic.

“ It was a pleasure to know Mr. Nanney throughout my school career. He was the MHS principal when my sister graduated and later was my history teacher in the 9th grade. I will always remember his dry wit and humor in that class. He was a good friend that I enjoyed seeing around town later in my life. My prayers go out to the Nanney family

“ About 19 years ago, I called an ad advertising "beautiful Beagle puppies for sale". Max answered the phone and I drove up with my wife to take a look. We drove away with a beautiful puppy, just like he'd said, but the funniest part of all was when Max asked what I did for a living. I told him I designed NASCAR trading cards. Max apparently was a huge trading card collector but didn't have anything like that, so he asked if I would give him $25 and two boxes of trading cards for the dog, which was really ironic because the company I worked for was called "Maxx". It was such a coincidence that we nearly named the dog "Max" too, but named him Murray for reasons I can't remember. I only knew Max Nanney for an hour, but I've never forgotten him. Thanks Max, I hope you and Murray are getting reacquainted...

“ Many young people were positively influenced by Mr Nanney during his tenure in the Mooresville City Schools. The last few times I spoke with him were at our church's annual yard sales--he was out scouting for baseball cards. We would always share a few memories as well as a few laughs. He was a gentleman and a gentle man and will be missed by hundreds of his former students. The prayers of all are with the Nanney family. Perhaps knowing that we share your grief provides some comfort. Sinerely, Mike

“ I have fond memories of Mr. Nanney from the time I was a student at Mooresville Senior High. He was the principal, and he also taught driver's education. He was the instructor for the class I took. I remember him as a gentle, unflappable man. May he rest in peace.

“ Mr Nanny was a well respected and loved teacher at MHS. .I remember when I transferred from North Mecklenburg to MHS in the middle of my Junior year he made me feel very welcome in his US History class. I am glad I had the privilege of knowing Mr Nanny. He was the quality of teacher that helped build MHS into the great high school it is today.
