Meghna and me studied at the hilltop called Sanawar. We were in the same dorm and also used to travel to Bombay together in the famous Bombay party. She was always full of stories about her life in New Jersey and had an infectious laugh and was always smiling. She used to visit her grandparents in Bandra, mumbai very close to where I live and we used to meet sometimes during our school days in mumbai. I will always have fond memories of you Maggie. May your beautiful soul rest in peace. My deep and sincere condolences to your family and loved one. Peace love and light ,Simrin Malik

“ To my dearest buddy Smita, Shomeet & Prerna, Minal , Damini & brothers

Is there a word than can possibly soothe a mother’s broken heart? One that can offer any comfort to the bereaved siblings of one gone too soon? A word that can console this grieving family?

Words fail us but know that we are thinking of Meghna and you with love. And keeping you in our prayers every moment and hoping the universe will envelope you in its embrace as you make your way through this devastating, untimely loss.
