“ My sincere condolences to the Cahill family. I went to high school with Mike, who was known in those days as "Crusher" Cahill, so-named by our 9th grade history teacher Chuck Chevalier. Mike was a funny guy, never more so than one day in French class. Sr. Catherine Higgins, a.k.a. "Bloody Mary", asked him to read aloud. Mike wasn't reading fast enough to suit her, so she said to him sarcastically, "Mr. Cahill, could you possibly read any slower?". Mike looked up very innocently and said with a straight face, "Well, I could try." I thought that nun would have a stroke! We had all we could do to keep from howling out loud. Too, too funny! Anyway, I hope that adds to the many great memories I know you have of him. May he rest in peace. Sincerely, Nick Varraso, Class of '71.
