“ I am very sorry for the loss of Mike, the "Dude" as I called him. My most sincere condolences for your whole family. And I thank you for notifying me of his unfortunate departure. I appreciated him a lot, and always considered him my friend. He was a great companion, he always had a good comment, at the right time. During the time that we worked together in AMP Hermosillo, we visited countless company subsidiaries, and I will always remember that time that in the middle of a gale and starving we by chance arrived at a seafood restaurant in Charlotte by railroad tracks, and that night they had the "all you can eat crab legs" ... we did our best until the owner told us: gentlemen, the crab legs are over ... Dude: rest in peace, my friend. Armando
