“Saddened today to learn of Mike's passing. I think in so many ways he had no idea the impact he had on me. Certainly, I thought of Mike as a "big brother." I wrote to others that it was on a business trip to NC in 2000 to see Mike and Pam Joyner that I met my wife. I let Mike know that I had met a wonderful woman on the plane, but didn't have the courage to ask for her number. Mike had fun with me. Told me that I lost that one, but I should know better next time. Said, "Big Strapper, if you can't sell yourself, how are you going to sell anything else." He was right. I chased Lori down. And, on a subsequent trip to TN with Mike, I made arrangements to see her. When I told Mike "a friend" was meeting me. He insisted on staying, saying he wanted to meet my friends. Only later did he concede he knew, it was "the girl." When he met Lori, he grilled her. He was part "big brother." He was part pain in the neck. But, he put her through her paces. He showed love for me by making sure she was "right" for me. Later he told me that I certainly wasn't good enough for her. One of our great delights has been sharing with him each year how our family has grown. So much, I'm trying to prove to my "big brother" that it makes sense. Mike, I hope you knew how much I cared for you. May you have eternal peace. And, may your family be held in God's love.

“ It came across as unbelievable when I saw of Mike passing. Our sincerest condolences especially to Kim, Tara, Michael, Jessica, Gerry, Lee, Brad and Pam. He's been a great friend, my go to for business, personal, life conversations. My annual roommate and someone who's chat's always made my day a better day. His smile and wicked sense of humor will always be missed. A prayer said in the Catholic Church for Mike. Eternal rest grant unto Mike, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon Mike. May the SOUL of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Sherman and Myong Oglesby - MN

“ Kim, Tara, Michael and Jessica- we are deeply saddened by the passing of Mike. He will be truly missed. This is a special prayer that we say in the Orthodox church and one that we say for Mike- With the saints, give rest to the soul of thy servant, Mike, where there is no pain, sorrow or suffering but life everlasting. May his memory be eternal.
