“ Jane, I am sorry for your loss and hold you in my heart. I am so grateful for Mike's good heart and how that made and will continue to make our world a brighter place. I appreciate what a caring cousin he was to me.
Kathy and I just watched the video of Mike's service and were deeply moved by the love of Mike. It was good to hear you speak of him and we smiled at your descriptions of the many things he delighted in right down to his cowboy boots, baking bread for friends and neighbors, and a profound reverence for the land - which is something he shared with my father.

Thank you for saying you know Mike will always be with you. This gladdens me. I know it is true. Love is eternal.
