“ We all love Aunt Millie. Growing up Aunt Millie and her family didn't live far from me and my family who my father is her brother. We sometimes would go visit after church and you could smell her sauce she was making as you came to the front door. She would sit us at the table with a plate of sauce and what we could have to dip into it. I can smell it as I write this. Delicious! We would all sit and talk afterward and she always would tell me how excited she was when I was born because I was the first girl being born having all my male cousins ahead of me. One of many memories. I know you will be looking down from above giving hugs. Everyone will miss you. Love Always-April-
