“ I really enjoyed working with Misty when our paths crossed a few different times at Lowe's. We had a friendly Iowa - Iowa State inner-office rivalry and would banter back and forth during Cy-Hawk trophy game week. She had such a kind heart and will be missed dearly by her Lowe's family. My thoughts and prayers are with her family during this difficult time.

“ Misty and I go back to 1999 at OfficeMax. We sat next to each other during the planes crashing into the twin towers on 9/11 holding hands and crying together for our country. We became dear friends and I then met Robin. He was awesome too and can grill a steak like no other person I know. Over the years, we met a few times as life would allow and have stayed in touch until now. I am proud to say that my life was enhanced by her presence and gravely saddened by her early departure. God has a reason and a plan. I look forward to seeing her again on the other side.

“ While both Misty and I worked at Lowe's I really knew her as a gym mom when Katie and Elizabeth did gymnastics together. She was always lending a helping hand and a good laugh. I remember she used to tell Katie to run like she had her brother's phone when running for vault.

I worked with Misty at Officemax in the late '90's. She was always cool as a cucumber and a great partner. I remember having Robin, Misty and the kids over for dinner soon after Katie was born; the joy in her family was evident. She was just one of those people whom I was happy to know and work with. I'm sad that she's no longer with us.
