“ My deepest condolences to Colt Murdock's family and friends; while no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for "the former things have passed away".

“ Sorry for your loss. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. The Scriptures indicate that it is possible to be reunited with your dead loved one in the near future, right here on earth under peaceful, righteous conditions. And at that time humans will have the prospect of enjoying perfect health, and they will never have to die again. Isaiah 25:8 He will swallow up death forever Isaiah 25:8 He will swallow up death forever .For more comfort please go to the website jw.org

“ I feel that it is right to express my condolences. I knew Colt since Elementary school and I watched him laugh and have fun through middle school. Not only did he have a smile on his face but you could tell from everyday that nothing could bring his day down. He was a wonderful friend to me and treated others around him nice. Not only that but he never let anyone or anything bring him down. He was even nice to be when I was going through rough patches. I remember him saying "It's gonna be ok. You just have to keep going." I never thought that those were going to be his last words to me. I talked to him months ago to see if he wanted to get together and catch up since we parted as childhood friends and went to different high school. I promised him I was going to hang out with him but sadly I was far too busy so I had to keep my promise even though it hurt dearly. Just walking in the room put tears in my eyes knowing that he had to leave the world so young. That is one fact that may haunt me forever but one thing I can really say is. He was one of the greatest people I know. He had what most don't, a pure heart. We are all going to miss you Colton. It was a shame for this to happen to someone that didn't deserve this.. No one deserves it. We will always think of the great times you had with us. Those are the times we have to cherish. Rest in Peace Colton.

“ Colt was a one of a kind person. He would make you laugh no matter how you were feeling and always seemed to brighten up my day. I would give anything in the world to have him back. There will NEVER ever be another Colt Murdock in this world or anyone like him. I loved him so much and always thought of him and Alec as brothers to me. May the Lord be with you during this difficult time. R.I.P Colt.

“ I was Colt's morning bus driver. He was always very respectful to me. He was the only student on the bus that I knew by name. He would often times allow everyone else to get off of the bus before him. Even if someone stopped to let him out, he would say "go ahead." Though I didn't know Colt very well, I will always remember him. My prayers and condolences are with your family.

“ Words cannot begin to express the pain that must come with such a tragic loss. I only met Colt a few times, but I heard so much about him from my sister, Valerie. His memory will live on in the hearts of those that loved him. Never to be forgotten, but to be celebrated and remembered forever as the full of life boy that we was. May the presecne and prayers of those around you provide the comfort to those who need it most.

“Colt, you never failed to light up every room you walked into. You were such a huge comfort to many and could put a smile on anyone's face. I know we weren't super close but every time we seen each other we would pick around and laugh. I remember Skyping you and Alec while yall played x-box and seeing you at football games. You are missed and loved very much. You'll never be forgotten sweet boy. Rest easy??

“ Colt you were the most respectful kid I have ever met. You always had a smile on your face every time you visited. I know the world lost a truly great person. And God gained an angel! You loved your family and friends you were so loved by many especially my daughter. You were her first true love. I know her heart is broken. I know you can hear her up there in heaven talking to you. There isn't enough time on earth that will allow anyone to get over this. I will remember your respectful yes mams and thanks you's the times we shared when you were with my family and the way you touched my daughters heart in a way no one else has. God bless you for that! Many prayers for you and your family!
