“ from Jeffrey McKnight to the family of Nancy Clodfelter. Condolences to you. I looked up to her as a little boy riding her school bus and as grown man, our conversations at Wal-Mart. For the Lord will not cast off for ever. But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies. For he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men. And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: Lamentations 3:31-33

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. Please find comfort in the resurrection promise at John 5:28,29 that reads; "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all that are in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Clodfelter. Although I don't know the family personally, I'd like to offer some consolation from God's Word, the Bible. John 5:28, 29 speaks of our loved ones being resurrected, and living in the future conditions described at Revelation 21:4, which reads: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain by anymore. The former things have passed away." I pray that the promise of this beautiful resurrection gives you all hope for the future and peace of mind now!
