“ I stood up with your Mom and Dad when they were married. What fun we had making those dresses. One homecoming at Western Nancy decided that three of the students could sing at the Home Economics breakfast. Oh did we sound good practicing in the marble hallways of the dept.! Nancy had the greatest voice and Sue and I filled in. We were ready and proud. The basement didn't quite make us sound the same. I finally ended up humming my part because I couldn't remember the words in my confusion. I lost track of them after they moved from Dallas City and just found her on facebook a couple of years ago. What a joy she was to my life. AND one of the few, proud to be a Christians, I met in college! Clarene Brewer Arnold

“ The Gift of Friendship.....

*Friendship is a priceless gift
That cannot be bought or sold,
But it's value is far greater
Than a mountain of gold.....
For gold is cold and lifeless,
It can neither see nor hear,
And in the time of trouble
It is powerless to cheer,
It has no ears to listen,
Nor heart to understand,
It cannot bring you comfort,
Or reach out a helping hand,
So when you ask God for a gift,
Be thankful if He sends,
Not diamonds, pearls or riches,
But the love of real true friends.*

The above describes the friendship between Nancy Sue and Lana Lou. I will miss you so much sweet sister and look forward to a reunion in the sweet bye and bye.

“ Nancy was a blessing to my family and I. We went to church together. She was a Godly women and will be greatly missed! She was my daughters generation connect and spoiled her. Also took the time to come out to her dance recital. I also enjoyed all the women’s events she put together for our church. The family is in our thoughts and prayers.

“ So sorry for your loss Larry, Kelly and family. Nancy was such a wonderful lady. Always there when anyone needed anything. Dad loved joking around with her. One of my favorite memories was the day Dad stopped at their house on the river in Dallas City and she made us wonderful pecan waffles 😊 She will be greatly missed. Take care, Love Nancy and Marty

“ Larry (Steph), Kelly (Scott) & Olivia,

Aunt Nancy was like a second mom to me. She always kept in touch with me and always cared how things were going with my education and my life in general. She truly was the most genuine and kind person I've ever known. She was an absolute angel to our family when mom was battling her illness. She uprooted her own life for many months to come to Illinois and help out our family during mom's illness, and I will be forever grateful to her for that. She really was one of a kind, and I will miss her.

“ It was truly my great privilege to have known Nancy. She was a true prayer warrior and one of the God list women I have ever known. We were in Bible studies together many times, also choir and women's missions. Some of my favorite times were at Lunch Bunch. We could never figure out where Nancy up with her quiz questions. She will be truly missed, but I am happy for her. She is now at the feet of Jesus and with her beloved Ron. God bless the family at this time. Linda Deese
