“ So sorry to hear about your Mom. Was trying to look up your address to send a Christmas card and was so....surprised to see that Nancy had passed away. We had no idea. Every time we pass your house we wonder how you all are. She was such a hard worker and loved the outdoors. I know this is very late but we will be praying for you guys. We love you.

“ I'll admit, I first became acquainted with Nancy when I would be at prayer meeting and ask, "Who made the delicious dessert?" So often, the answer would be, "Nancy!" But then I got to know her by her kindness and genuine spirit and then I got to know her by her FAITH. Wow. She loved Jesus and was she ever loyal to him, I will never forget that. My condolences and sympathies to the family.
