

Nancy Moore Wilson

March 25, 1930 - January 16, 2016

Mrs. Nancy Moore Wilson, 85, of Mooresville, passed away Saturday morning, January 16, at Lake Norman Regional Medical Center.

Nancy was born on March 25, 1930. She was the daughter of the late William Vance Moore and Della Boggs Moore. Nancy moved to Mooresville with her widowed mother, sister, and brother as a high school senior. She lived her entire life in the home her family bought shortly after coming to Mooresville. Nancy was a skilled seamstress and quilter. For several years, she was part owner and proprietor of Three Little Women, a local shop specializing in smocking, decorative flag, and quilting supplies and classes. Her children and grandchildren were the lucky recipients of many of Granny's lovely custom made quilts and crafts.

Nancy is survived by three daughters: June Lane (husband Bill), Donna McMillan (husband Robin), and Barbara Howard (husband David); six granddaughters, three grandsons, and twelve great-grandchildren.

She is survived by one sister Rosalie Moore Crouch (husband Marshall) and one brother Charles Kent Moore (wife Jackie) and many nieces and nephews. Nancy was preceded in death by her husband Cecil Brown Wilson.

A memorial service will be held at 2:00 PM on Sunday, January 24 at Mooresville ARP Church. The family will receive friends in the church Family Life Center immediately following the service.

Memorials may be made in Nancy's memory to Mooresville ARP Church, 659 Carpenter Ave, Mooresville, NC 28115.

“ Oh, June, Donna, and Barbara, I did not know that your mother had died. I heard about her death from one of the teachers at our get-together each month. She was the same age as my sister, Jo Ann, who lives in Fayetteville. Do know that Janielle and I are thinking and praying for you. Oh, how I remember you three (plus Bill) in my French classes. Those were the days, weren't they? Take care. Love, Monsieur and Janielle
