“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. I was a teacher at Fry School when Nancy was the school secretary there. She was a wonderful and caring woman. Instinct told me something was amiss, as her email jokes she'd send to me on a very regular basis seemed to come to a sudden halt a while back. It was a privilege to have known her. Heaven has another angel now and boy, can she cook!

“ Sorry for the loss of your loved one. I have found this scripture to be most comforting. I hope this will bring comfort to you as it has to me. Isaiah 25:8- He will swallow up death forever.

“ Dear Nancy, Frank and families, I was so sorry to hear about your mother. She meant so much to me. Until my niece came to live with me in 1992, she was the first person I saw every morning. She really loved her job as Fry School secretary. We all loved her: the teachers and staff, the students, and the parents. She was always very respectful of her boss (the principal). I remember how when computers were first introduced most of the other secretaries were unhappy and some even refused to learn how to operate them, but not Nancy; she worked very diligently at overcoming her fear and really mastered what was required and even more. I spent many hours visiting Frank and Nancy on Latrobe (I think) and later at her condo in Tinley (maybe Orland). While others maybe didn't spend as much time as I did with her, they loved her as much as I did. I know she is now resting peacefully with the other angels.
