“ Nate, it's been quite a few months since you're passing. Since then, I've been reflecting a fair amount on my life. In the period of time where we became close friends over the past couple years, you're humbleness still remains as a goal for me to reach one day. I'll never forget our early morning water ski runs that occurred almost every day during the summer of '16. You were the only friend I ever had that enjoyed the lake, in every aspect, as much as I do. Every morning I wake up, get some breakfast, and look out at the lake and see the spray of the jet ski gracefully falling back into the water. Every day I can vividly hear you say, "So how much are we gonna shorten the rope this time?" From the spray battles that always ended in a draw, to going to Carowinds with Calleigh, Maddie, and Jacob, you will have always played one of the largest roles in my life and there will never be a day where you don't come to mind. Miss you man.

“ Nate, Not a moment goes by that I don't think of you! Jacob talks about you daily and is constantly looking at your pictures. I still wait for your glowing face to walk in and see what's cooking. Love & Miss you terribly! P

“ To Andy Buller and Family,I cannot imagine the pain you and your family are feeling at this time. My heart was deeply saddened to hear the news of the passing of your son. I only knew you through working with you at LifeScan/Janssen but I always remember you talking of your family and how you enjoyed living on the lake where you and your son enjoyed the outdoors. I know you will cherish those memories forever on this earth until that Glorious day you are able to reunite with him and pick up where you left off. My prayers are truly with you and your family.

Sandy Thornton - November 16, 2016 at 12:00 AM

“ Nathan,We miss you buddy! It's been a month since you passed and we still can't believe you're gone. You ARE such a wonderful person and spirit, and you will continue to live on in all of us. You have truly left an indelible mark on so many. Although we will miss your smile and your kind heart every moment of every day, I believe in my heart that we'll be with you again. I smile every time I see a fish, or the color green for that matter. We pray for you and I truly can't wait until our paths meet again.To the best son, big brother, grandson, cousin, nephew, and friend that anyone could ever ask for, we love you and will miss you forever.

“Nathan, I will always remember your big heart, gentle demeanor and respectful ways in 4th grade. You were well-loved by everyone who had the good fortune of meeting and knowing you. I am reading a book called Imagine Heaven right now, and it made me realize that despite the deep grief that those you left behind are feeling because you left earlier than most, I know that we will all eventually see you again someday. Pray for us while up there. I know that you are basking in eternal love and peace in heaven.

Mrs. Lim - October 27, 2016 at 12:00 AM

“To my Friend and Brother Nathan, I want to thank you for the way you've changed my life forever and made me the person I am today. You taught me how to enjoy every second of every day and the true meaning of friendship. From the hangouts that turned into sleepovers when you lived in P-town to spending hours fishing off your dock, we have made memories that I will never forget. You will always be remembered as a fearless yet caring friend, son and brother. My prayers go out to the entire Buller Family. Rest in paradise Buddy, I love you and I'll see you again someday. “ I found out about this horrible news when I went to your FB page to see how you all survived the hurricane. It ruined my day. I still cannot believe it and cannot get you and the family off my mind. I have memories of your mom showing me pictures of Nathan when we worked together and hearing her brag about the fantastic mom you are. And thru the years I've followed you and the children growing up. To me you had the perfect life and perfect family. I am so very sorry, for everyone and my heart is truly broken. All my love.

“ The Krywe family met Nate and the Buller family 6 six years ago in Pleasanton, CA thanks to the friendship Devin and Nate started. The boys spent years playing baseball on the same team and that led to our families spending countless evenings hanging out. Then sadly, the Bullers moved to NC. We did not let that stop the strong bond we had created because since then we spent 3 of the best summer vacations with them in the Carolinas. We will never forget: the boys joking and fooling around on the drive down to the Coast, walking down the pier and seeing Nate & Devin in all their glory fishing, watching Nate soar through the air on his wakeboard, seeing the kids bounce all over each other while desperately trying to hang onto the tube behind the boat, seeing Nate's endless energy while he squeezed every ounce of fun a day could bring, watching him care so deeply for Calleigh and Maddie and most of all just the endless hours of silliness and laughter together. Nothing can take all of that away!!! We loved Nate like a son and a brother and we all have so much love for Amy, Andy, Calleigh and Maddie. Nathan, you will always be in our hearts and our greatest memories. With so much love, The Krywe's

“ What a great picture of Nathan! My husband and I met him and his dad Andy and his uncle Josh on Portsmouth Island, and were immediately impressed by his character. We saw the three of them there again recently, the weekend before Nathan passed, camping and fishing and loving it. Nathan had landed a 41-inch red drum, a tremendous accomplishment for a surf fisherman of any age. You can believe word spread quickly up and down the beach! Nathan seemed both proud and humbled by the experience. He was not at all boastful, a testament to his character. We admire Andy and Josh so much for helping him experience the great outdoors, and could tell that Nathan knew these were special times and a special place. We only knew this surf fishing side of Nathan, but could sense what a fine person he was. We would like his family to know that Nathan made a big impact on others during his life. He will be mourned and missed and remembered by many folks unknown to them, and we send our sincere thoughts and prayers.

“ We met the Buller family when they moved 2 doors down from us in Pleasanton about 6 years ago. We immediately loved having such a fun vibrant family in our sleepy court . The whole family was so nice and our children, Emerson and Laird , immediately loved Nathan, Calleigh, and Maddie . We have missed the energy you brought to Summer Ct and still think of you all as we pull into our driveway every day. We have enjoyed watching the kids grow through Facebook and Christmas cards. Our hearts are broken for what your family is going through with the loss of such a wonderful boy Nathan. When we think of your family it's always with laughter and smiles from all of your children but especially Nathan . Our thoughts and prayers are with your entire family . We are thinking of you and sending hugs and love your way.Love to all,The Muise Family
