“ My name is Heather Kiser and I am the funeral director that handled the arrangements in Texarkana for Neil's grandmother, Mrs. Townsend. My husband's name is also Neal (we joked about him having the correct spelling) and so Neil Townsend and I hit it off in the arrangements conference. He was such a nice guy and a pleasure to meet. I was so saddened and shocked to hear the news of his passing. The Townsends were a precious family and I was blessed to be able to take care of them. Amy, I didn't get to meet you and Cooper but please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I can't imagine your pain. May God be your source of strength and comfort.

“ Dear Bertie, Dennis & Family, Although we know the suffering of losing someone so dear way too soon, we also know the Lord bolsters us through His grace and our faith and He comforts us, for "He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds" (Psalm 147:3). We are thinking of you and holding you close in our prayers. May He comfort you and give you peace, and a lifetime of wonderful memories.

Here are some Words that have comforted us during times of deep grief: My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever (Psalm 73:26 NIV). We are asking the God of all comfort to strengthen and comfort your hearts as only He can. With love and Hope, Beth & Aaron Smith Psalm 42 & 86
