“ Nell was one of the kindest people that I knew. She was a part of the little group of friends at Berea Baptist Church that always welcomed me in, whenever I've stayed at my grandma's house over the years. No matter how many years passed between visits, she always treated me like family. I will miss her dearly <3.

I have not known Nell very long, but I sensed a kindred spirit in her. I loved her sharp thinking and humor. There was comfort in that she was 'always there' at church functions. I will miss her.

To Shara and Bill and all of Nell's Family: I am so sorry for your loss. I know Nell is with her Lord and Savior now, and celebrating him. And I'm sure Scott was there to welcome her Home. I loved Nell. She was a dear sweet Lady, and she was always a wonderful friend to my Mama and Daddy, Peggy and Clarence Railey, before they passed away. We talked on Facebook sometimes. I didn't know until today that she had passed away. I will miss her.
