“ May your family take comfort in this verse; John 5:28, 29: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.” May Jesus’ words of the resurrection hope bring you comfort in your time of grief.

“ Spent some of my early childhood years living just a couple doors down from the Curtis's. Ms. Curtis was always so sweet and welcomed me into her home like I was one of her own. A genuinely warm and loving lady, I am sure she will be greatly missed. She left some wonderful memories from all those that knew her.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Curtis. Although I don't know the family personally, I'd like to offer some consolation from God's Word, the Bible. John 5:28, 29 talks about the hope of seeing our loved ones again when they are resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain by anymore. The former things have passed away." May this beautiful promise bring hope for the future and peace of mind now!
