“ I am truly saddened to hear of Nola’s passing. There are no words to express the huge role both Nola and Bob had in my life. She was literally my first role model, leader, confidant, cheerleader, ready to stand in my corner when I first went to work as a young mother at United Mailing Service in 1984. She helped mold me into the person I am today. She is someone I have always aspired to model my life after... Loyal, dedicated, loving, kind, she was one of a kind. I know she will be greatly missed by all that loved her.
