“ I am saddened by the passing of my special friend, Olin. Our friendship goes back, like forever. We were in the Navy together in 1943-44. We rode the train together from New York to Gastonia and back several times. We both attended the USS Bates reunion many times. I thought Olin was a very special, unique man. He was the happiest, positive, and most enthusiastic man I have ever know. I loved being around him. I valued his friendship. What a fantastic life he had. It is with a heavy heart that I say goodbye to Olin, a truly outstanding man and my dear friend.

“ As a young person growing up in Lowell, we were customers of Goodnight Brothers and their employees (including the Burleson Boys, Lonnie Bryson) were some of the finest persons one would wish to have known. At 83, I extend my best to the family and still cherish their honest way of providing top of the line products to our grocery May the Lord continue to bless all of you all.
