“ *Sorry for your loss. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. The Scriptures indicate that it is possible to be reunited with your dead loved one in the near future, right here on earth under peaceful, righteous conditions. And at that time humans will have the prospect of enjoying perfect health, and they will never have to die again. “ I offer my deepest condolences to your family. I was in Olivia's class at Duke TiP 2013. Although I was only with her for three weeks, I was very impacted by her unique, beautiful spirit, and I am forever thankful for the short time that we had together. Olivia will never be forgotten; I will always carry the memory of her friendship in my heart. I am honored to have known your daughter, and my prayers go out to you in this difficult time.

“ I send my DEEPEST condolences to the family and friends of Olivia Savage. While no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for “the former things have passed away”. Please visit our website at jw.org to learn about this beautiful hope and more.

“ I'm so sorry to hear what happened and I offer my deepest condolences. She was a beautiful, bright, young lady and I wish she were still here to grace the world with her presence. I am so sorry for your loss... Although I had lost contact with Olivia for some time since freshman year, I will always remember her to be the spirited thoughtful girl I knew. The loss of such a wonderful girl saddens me, and she will be greatly missed.

“ I was not honored to know your Olivia. My daughter, Olivia, just turned 17. As a mother, I can't put into words how I would feel; I don't know how I would feel. I know Amy Delaney, she thought your Olivia was brilliant, beautiful and wise beyond her years. I wish I could say how sorry I am for your loss but it looks trivial. I will hold you in my prayers.
