“ Osteen was my sweet aunt that I loved to visit all throughout my life. She and my uncle Bob were good Christian salt of the earth folks you just don't find anymore. Good as Gold. Always had the doors to their home open to you at anytime, always ready to take a trip wherever it was that you were going, and just loved to get out and enjoy life with you and have fun. Osteen was a fantastic cook as they say and could make the best fried chicken and cakes of just about anyone. I really enjoyed taking her flowers when I went to visit her because they lit up a big smile on her face. Her sweet heart and spirit will be surely missed. She was the very last of the greats in our family. Thank you Aunt Osteen for putting a huge stamp on all of our hearts.
