“ My sister Pam always gave what she could to others in need and helped me through a very trying time in my own life. Her love for others was genuine and pure. You will be missed; we will see each other again.

Rest in peace!

Your loving brother Jerry

“ Pam,
There are no words to express how much we now and will continue to miss you.. We will miss the fun times with treasure hunting, laughter and also coffee/wine with serious talks. Our hearts are saddened by you no longer being here physically, but know that you are now in a better place.. Your kindness, friendship and wisdom will be forever missed, but your legacy will live on, never to be forgotten..Rest in peace my friend.
Forever in our hearts,
John , Debra
