Outgoing by nature, Patricia never met a stranger. She relished time spent entertaining family and friends with her stories, Pat sure did love to talk and make everyone laugh and smile. Born and raised in Goshen, NY, Pat was raised by her loving foster parents Donald and Gertrude Black. They molded her into the loving, caring, compassionate woman we've all grown to love.

Pat also enjoyed reading, shopping, listening to oldies, visiting the library, playing board games with her grandchildren and she loved sitting outside enjoying the beautiful weather.

A vast appreciation for her animals, Lilo, Scarlet and Bear, they were like her children, there was never a minute that went by that she wasn't thinking about them. Pat also had a sensitive side for all the stray cats that came to her house, she always made sure they had food, water and shelter. Pat was an angel that protected God's animals. Pat truly had a heart of gold and as much as her family will miss her the animals will mourn her loss just as much. There was never a day that went by that she wouldn't be without her grandchildren, they were her world. Patricia and Charles were blessed with 45 years of marriage, sometimes they got on each others nerves but at the end of the day they were the true epitome of soulmates.

Most important to her was her family and she will forever be remembered as a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt and friend.
