“ Mima (Pat) was a Great cook! She was a Master with an iron skillet. I remember the cornbread in the iron skillet. She would get the grease so hot that when she poured in the batter you could hear it sizzle 6ft away. She made it crunchy on the bottom & delicious throughout!

She also made Fantastic guacamole among Many other dishes. I guess having all those Avocado trees in her yard at 30241 SW 172nd Ave gave her the opportunity to become a Master of that dish. She was a Welcoming Hostess & a Wonderful Cook!
