Pat worked as a personal home care aide and in factories for many years. She enjoyed watching cooking and game shows on TV, shopping, joy rides and more than anything she loved spending time with her family. She was a person with a tremendously strong determination and will. She enjoyed the simple things in life and her family was her most prized possession. She did a fantastic job and never gave up while raising five children as a widower. She did this with great determination, courage, and strength! She gave this demanding role no thought and she will always be remembered as the one who taught our family how to love. She taught her family the most important thing in life was to love the Lord with all your heart, soul, and mind. She gave many sacrifices through the years. She laid a solid foundation in the Lord for her family to build their lives on by teaching them that when you don't know what to pray, just speak the name of JESUS. The family will always remember this as her lasting legacy. The family is very proud and thankful that her granddaughter, Hailey, was able to be her personal caregiver during these recent months. She had a large number of nieces, nephews and honorary family members that she loved dearly. Special family; Tonya Cosner, Linda Simpson, Misty Browning, Terry Toler, Patrick Rogers, Tammy Moore and Whitney Arreola.
