“ Frank and Tracy - Many special memories of your Mom. So sorry for your loss. Have to share, that while your Dad was in Europe, I remember her coming to our house in Wayland. She always brought the most beautiful hand knitted Barbie doll outfits for me. Even hosted a bridal shower for me at your home in Abington. Special lady. With love, Susan

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Shannon-Bradford. Although I did not know her personally, I, too, have experienced the loss of a loved one some years ago and know it is a difficult situation to face. I pray that her family and friends can find comfort in God’s Word, the Bible, and continue to rely on Him in prayer. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they are resurrected back to life. We can be confident in that beautiful and exciting promise, and may it bring you hope and peace!

“ Heaven has gained a witty, elegant and graceful angel. I will miss your sage advice and profound insight on life. You were the 1st to welcome me to the neighborhood and became a friend that I looked forward to spending time with. Until we meet again my dear sweet confidante. I love you, Karen
