“ My heart is aching. "PJ" was my Erica's best friend,our sweet neighbor,since they was four years old,until they went separate ways. They went to preschool together, he often had breakfast with us. Such a sweet soul. I have missed the Longo family,our Colts Neck neighbors for many years. We are so sad. Many tears were shed... We pray for this family to find peace and closure soon. We will miss you PJ. The world has lost a gentle caring soul. Elizabeth Corvasce,Colts Neck NJ

“ Our hearts go out to All of you! We shared many youthful memories. Pat was a very respectful young man. We had supervised fun play dates. I remember how Pat had his mom ask me for a recipe he loved when he ate at our house, that was Pasta Fagiolo. I also remember how he got involved with Non-profit SK8 4 A Cause to assist in getting our extreme sports in our Colts Neck Community to keep kids focused. Pat and family will Always be in our hearts. Pat's parents are wonderful and were Always Hands on❤️ Our Deepest sympathy, The Nicoletti Family 🙏🙏🙏
