“ A great friend and teammate. Loved all the great times we had growing up as neighbors. Always willing to help anyone in need. I will never forget all the good times we had growing up Pat. Thank you for that. Rest now. Your in the hands of the Lord. And I know you are reunited with your mom and dad.

“ As I put out pine needles around the shrubs Thursday that Patrick planted for me, I thought of him. He would have appreciated the quiet day, the birds singing, and the little dog that keeps bringing me the ball to throw. Patrick loved plants and flowers, dogs and animals, the peace of the lake, God's creation. From what I could see of Patrick he was a kind soul in a broken body and mind. As we all are. I believe he knew the Lord and I pray that he is in the arms of his Savior. I am reminded of Patrick and many others who struggle in this life in the verse of a song. "My chains are gone. I've been set free. My God, my Savior has ransomed me. And like a flood, His mercy reigns. Unending love, amazing grace." Prayers to all of Patrick's family for peace in Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior.

This is so beautiful, Susan; we also knew Patrick. He started out our acquaintance as a paid contractor and became a dear friend. We had many conversations regarding life and family. He was a gentle giant who brought joy whenever he showed up. I will miss his booming " say hello to the little black dog for me " whenever he called. My little dog, Ron Paul , loved him equally. I am reassured that we will meet again in that place of no tears or suffering one day. I eagerly await that reunion.

Goodbye Patrick,

My wife and I only knew you for short time, you started out as a paid contractor for us as well, but we grew to love you. You had a unique combination of intelligence and empathy. You are sorely missed!
