“ My sympathy to Patti Jo's family, especially to her sisters and surviving brothers, because I know the loss of a sibling leaves a void in that special place in your heart that was reserved for them only. I lost both of my only siblings two years ago, within a month of each other. They were Patti's first cousins. May God's blessing and comfort be with all of you, children, grand children, and siblings.

“ Do Not Stand at My Grave and Weep BY: Mary Elizabeth Frye Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there, I do not sleep. I am in a thousand winds that blow, I am the softly falling snow. I am the gentle showers of rain, I am the fields of ripening grain. I am in the morning hush, I am in the graceful rush Of beautiful birds in circling flight, I am the starshine of the night. I am in the flowers that bloom, I am in a quiet room. I am in the birds that sing, I am in each lovely thing. Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there. I do not die.
