

Paul Michael Bellissimo

Paul Michael Bellissimo was born on Aug 27, 1946, in Williamsburg, Brooklyn, N.Y. to Veronica (Vera) and John (Jack) Bellissimo and reared in Uniondale, NY. He enlisted in the New York Air National Guard in 1967 and was based at Floyd Bennett Field, Brooklyn, NY. He served as Loadmaster with the 106th Military Airlift Wing and in 1975, he attended and graduated Pararescue school, reporting to the newly formed PJ section based at Westhampton Beach, NY.

From 1975 through 1995 he served with the 102 Air Rescue Squadron and 106th Air Rescue Wing supporting numerous rescue missions flying on the HH-3E Sikorsky and the HC130 Hercules. In December 1979, he supported the rescue of nine crew members from the sailing vessel John F. Leavitt. He provided leadership on the unit's transition to the HH-60G helicopter and in 1987, he helped pioneer the Space Shuttle rescue operations and supported numerous shuttle launches during that program.

In 1991 he deployed to Saudi Arabia following Operation Desert Storm, which later transitioned to Operation Southern Watch. His personal awards include the Air Medal and the Air Force Commendation medal, and he is entitled to wear the Southwest Asia Campaign Medal as well as the Vietnam Service Medal.

Following his military career, he attended the State University of New York at Stony Brook, earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in history and political science, graduating summa cum laude, and continued as a graduate student to earn a Master of Arts degree in teaching social studies.

His talents were many and his energy boundless; he was industrious, resilient, and faithfully loyal to those he loved. He challenged the status quo and staunchly advocated and empowered his PJ teammates; he was a great American, airmen, and patriot.

“ Remembrance Post for Paul Michael Bellissimo
Aug 27, 1946 - Nov 7, 2025

Today I want to honor a friend who left a lasting mark on my life — Paul Bellissimo. We were building a dream together, a dream that was cut short far too soon because of cancer.

Paul showed me so much in such a short time. A retired Master Chief Paraman, he carried himself with a strength and bravery that never wavered. I watched him build a barn with his bare hands — the kind of determination most people only talk about, he lived it. Some mornings I'd pull up and find him in his chair, coffee in hand, just watching the horses. Those quiet moments feel even more meaningful now. I'm grateful I was able to share the farm life, the horses, and a little piece of peace with him during his last year here with us.

And with me, he shared integrity, strength, courage, and a dream. I'll carry that forward for both of us.

Rest easy, Paul. You'll always be part of this place. ☐ 🐾
