“ Fay and Family, I worked with Fay at Belk (the old store) many years ago. Our husbands had the same first name. The four of us took a trip with Christian tours to the World's Fair in Knoxville in 1982 and Fay and Paul also came to our home on Lake Norman and enjoyed a boat ride. Many years ago, but when I saw Paul Cook's picture in the Charlotte Observer it brought back memories and I wanted to extend my sympathy to Fay and Family. Such nice people. God be with you all and may your memories ease your pain. God Bless you.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Cook. Although I did not know him personally, the loss of a loved one is definitely a trying time for all. I pray that his family and friends can find comfort in God’s Word the Bible, and continue to rely on Him in prayer. At John 5:28, 29 we read: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...” May the promise of this beautiful resurrection give you all hope and peace of mind!
