“ Theresa and Josh, know that my heart goes out for you and your family. I know how it is to have to tend to a person that you love who is too sick to take care of their self. I have known Paul since he was a child he has always been a good boy, a respectful young man, a great father and a great man. I know that you will both miss him terribly but you know he will always be watching over you and will forever be in your hearts. My family is hurting for you and your family. Take Care and know that he is in a better place to relieve your pain.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Jenkins. Although I don't know the family personally, I'd like to offer some consolation from God's Word, the Bible. John 5:28, 29 speaks of our loved ones being resurrected, and living in the future conditions described at Revelation 21:4, which reads: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain by anymore. The former things have passed away." I pray that the promise of this beautiful resurrection gives you all hope for the future and peace of mind now!
