“ *I met Mr. Paul Kelly through work. He was a good customer for many years. I also enjoyed coming to his office and making myself at home. He was blunt and to the point about many issues such as how badly I messed up the word Jaguar. He was a hard working example for many family and friends. He will be greatly missed I am sure. “ Paul Kelly was a household name in the Eulitt family. Our father, Jack, loved his dear and faithful friend, Paul. We will never forget Mr. Kelly's sacrifice traveling to Charlotte to visit our father at his nursing home, attending his visitation, and reading Scripture at his funeral last September. With grateful hearts, Mary Ellen & The Eulitt Family
