Granted it is just from her picture that I know her, but it seems to have been a loss to the world. - Susanne Felton, Charlotte, NC*

“Wow! What a beautiful time of sharing the life of your precious daughter, sister and friend. Payton was obviously loved and loving to all who knew or met her. What an amazing testimony. Words cannot express at a time such as this however each one who spoke made me feel as if Payton was also my best friend. Maybe it is my way of knowing that I should also be as humble and kind as Payton. Your void will never be filled yet you have such a legacy to continue. May God continue to hold you close today and in the most difficult days ahead. From Payton's precious heart full of love for you all ...."she got you last".

“Shonnette, I never got to meet Payton, but if she has your genes she was something special. I'm very sorry for the loss and am praying for you and your family. This is not the way I would have wanted to send you a message, God knows I can't imagine your pain and grief. Just please know I'm thinking of you and Aunt Kay and your son and Payton's father at this time. May you have peace and comfort in the days ahead.

“ To Paytons family....I don't personally know you all, but I listen to Ace & TJ everyday and it just makes you feel as though you are "family". I am so very sorry for your loss. My son died as a baby and losing a child is a hurt I wouldn't wish on no one. I can't say that I know how you are feeling because each person hurts different but I can say that I do know how I felt when my son passed away & it was an indescribable pain. Just don't stop speaking of her memories and don't shut everyone out because that is the worst thing you could do. Just because she is no longer with us, doesn't mean that her memories have to pass along with her. Keep those memories alive. I have prayed for you all and will continue. I pray that God keeps you all wrapped in his arms and gives you all peace. God bless and keep you all. Love & Prayers, Rhonda Enriquez

“ When my then 13 year old son John ( now 21) was fighting cancer, Ace and TJ came to the hospital to visit- and that time was a highlight and a bright spot in a very dark time for all of us. When I read of Payton’s passing, my heart went out to her family, and I can only hope and pray that they will find comfort and peace in this very difficult time... I appreciate all that Ace did in our time of need, and I am so sorry that this has all happened. Peace, love, and comfort to you all. We are thinking of you with kindness and prayers!

“ I remember Payton coming to the salon with her mother, (age 9ish) even if she had to skip school in order to come she was there. She was always the sweetest and most thoughtful child I have ever met. If she was going next door to get food from a restaurant she never did that without asking everyone else if they wanted anything or she would just go and get a pizza for everyone. She seemed like the kind of kid that wanted to save the world and could have accomplished whatever she put her mind to. I have not seen her since she was around 9 years old until recent pictures and she grew into a beautiful young lady and I know Payton was just as beautiful on the inside as she was on the out. My heart breaks for her parents and her brother. My prayer for the family is that everyday that passes I pray it be a little easier than yesterday.

“ David, We are so heart broken by your loss. After spending a week with you and the GrinKids Org. in 2009, we learned that you are such an amazing, loving person and we can only imagine that you have raised amazing and loving children. Even though Payton has moved on, remember that she has simply moved into the next room divided only by a thin veil. Much like a one way mirror, ours is the only side that is dark while she has more light and clarity than ever before. Please allow me to pray for you here, Dear Father God, it is Your name that I pray, please surround the Cannon family in your light and in your love. Please let them find comfort in knowing that Payton is in a more peaceful and loving world than this one in which we are left. Also, give them the knowledge that all of her troubles are no longer and that she is in a place of forever peace and tranquility. Father God, I pray that, for this time, the family will come together and heal , that the past will be left where it is and the future will lead them all into a life of tenderness and understanding. Again, Father God, it is in Your name that I pray for Ace and his family.
