“ Rex, Maudie, and family,
Your dad was such a kind neighbor. Always cheerful and smiling to greet us, as we pulled into the neighborhood. I loved watching him outside mowing the lawn. I could tell that he enjoyed that and puttering away at fixing things. I will miss watching for his light to come on and off so I knew that he was okay. He is flying high and happy with his Lord! Blessing to all of you as you mourn.

“ Dear Family, Mr. Phil was a very special friend to my mom, Joyce Summers. He, Ms. Joann and my mom had been friends for 30+ years. After Ms. Joann went home to be with the LORD, Mr. Phil and my mom became going out to eat buddies and when my mom got to where I couldn't leave her by herself due to severe dementia, Mr. Phil would help me out by taking her out for lunch, taking her to church before she got so bad, and watching her while we went to church after she was unable to attend her church. He was a tremendous blessing in my life. He always would keep me smiling. Due to me caring for my mom I was not able to be there for Mr. Phil as I would have liked to be. He truly was God's blessing to this world. Glenda Benge
