“ Phyllis did my Grandma Amy Gardner's hair for many years. She thought a lot of Ms. Phyllis and no one could fix her hair better. I remember playing in her shop while she was working on the ladies hair. She was always a sweet lady!

Phyllis was one of a kind hair dresser. I had the pleasure and honor to be her model when she went to get her hair dressing licence I will miss her a great deal, I enjoyed the years she came to my house to fix my hair she not only fixed my hair she also fixed several of my family and my neighbors. I will alway remember Phyllis for all we done as children and adults. My mother and dad also thought a lot of her. She was a not only part of the family but a friend.
