“ To Becky and family, my heart is saddened to hear of Rachel’s passing. My family and I would sit with Rachel in the cafe at The Cove Church during service. She was very sweet and loving, yet showed her stubbornness at times. We certainly have missed her! My son still remembers the joyful day when he had purchased a new washing machine for her. She is now in a glorious home shining down on us. My thoughts and prayers of comfort and peace are with all of you.

*Blessings,

“ Becky and family,

Our hearts share your sorrow in Miss Rachel's passing from us yet rejoice with you in her home-going. She loved to talk about her precious Dalton, her family, Miss Marcia...so many fond memories of times shared together. She was feisty, stubborn, loving, sweet. She is missed and held dear in our hearts. She is cheering us on to keep the faith and persevere as she modeled so well for us. Praying now for the God of all comfort and Father of all compassion to hold you ever so tight today and the days ahead.

“ Becky, I have thought of so much to say about Rachel. Now, I just can't put them down. I treasure all the time, phone calls and talks we had. We have prayed together, laughed together and cried together. I grew to love her, learned of her stubbornness, (lol), and her loving heart. She will never be forgotten. Prayers for you and family as you go through this time.
