

Randall Shawn Smith

November 10, 1965 - February 20, 2022

Randall Shawn Smith, "Randy", 55, of Mooresville, NC and formerly of DeLand, FL passed away suddenly Sunday, February 20, 2022 at home. He was born November 10, 1965, in Omaha, NE, the son of Robert Smith and Lorene Smith.

In his early years, Randy served as an active member of the US Navy, followed by a dedicated member of the US Naval Reserves. He was proud of the time he served and had a great love for his country.

Outgoing by nature, Randy never met a stranger. He relished time spent with his wife and children, always looking forward to the next adventure to experience the world or just in his home with his 5 beloved dachshunds. He was an immensely hard worker and strived to provide his family with the best life, while raising his children to be independent and strong.

A vast appreciation for craftsmanship, Randy's favorite place to be was at his home. He enjoyed working with his hands, always using his creative mind to plan out the next project. He put his heart into the things that he created whether it was turning his home into a resort or helping a neighbor with a project in their own home.

Most important to him was his family and he will forever be remembered as a loving and devoted husband, father, and friend.

He leaves a lasting legacy to be cherished by his survivors, his wife of 22 years, Jessica Smith; sons, Ethan Smith and Jeffrey Soehnlein; daughters, Camryn Soehnlein and wife Samantha, Cassidy Soehnlein, Auden Smith, Heydon Smith, and Alexa Smith. In addition to his parents, Randall is also survived by his sister Deborah McManus and husband Jim. He was preceded in death by his brother, Robert Smith II.

The family would like to extend their sincere appreciation to all the family and friends for their unwavering compassionate and supportive care that was provided. Your kindness will never be forgotten.

“ We are deeply shocked and saddened by the sudden death of Randy. Randy was a terrific, loving husband to my niece Jessica. He took over the role of father to my great- nieces and nephew. He accepted them as his own and loved them as only a father can. Ethan was born and he made their family complete. Together he and Jessica raised exceptionally bright, loving children.

Randy was exceptionally talented especially with his wood work. Taking a piece of wood and making something of true beauty. But woodworking as not his only talent – he transformed their homes with various other projects.

He always greeted us warmly with a smile on his face. He had a great personality.

I know Jessica and the children will miss him terribly. But he would want them to go on - honoring his memory by continuing to accomplish their goals. We pray God's comfort upon them – comfort that only God can provide.

Remember Uncle Chuck and I am here for you.

“ Randy and our friends were 17. Well I was 18 and allowed to drink. So Randy ,Debbie ,Cindy and I were out just being silly. We had a 6 pack of beer. I don't remember if there was more . Lol. Cindy and Debbie were just friends but at some point we were in a parking lot at the mall making out.

I must say for some reason I don't recall I had lipstick on my face like an Indian. So Randy and I were both across the seats with our friends Cindy and Debbie late and a knock on the car door alerts us all . Next I know a cop is opening the door on my side and says. “ Ok, get out of the car Cichiece! Lmao. Misspelled maybe. The Indian Cocheez? I got a ticket the rest a good laugh at my new name and a memory for life
