“ To Family and Friends,
I'm so sorry for your loss of Renata. I've known all of you, for nine years now, and my heart is truly broken. I pray that you receive peace and comfort from the unbearable pain you're experiencing.

Renata was beautiful, intelligent, kind, caring, and had a great sense of humor. She always made me feel welcomed, loved, and special.

Although, she will be terribly missed, she is now in heaven with Madi and experiencing an abundance of love, joy, and happiness and free of pain and suffering. 🙏

“ I can't even begin to describe Renata. I still remember the first time I strolled into Mooresville as a CT northerner. Staying with Jon and Sarah, they invited me to Sunday dinner. I had no idea what to expect and who I'd be meeting.

Little would I know that one of the amazing people I'd meet that day was Renata. She messed with me right from the beginning and I knew how special she would be in my life even after a short time.

Even after returning home to CT I stayed in contact with her.

I am so saddened on hear about her passing and I would do anything for the family. She treated me like one of her own barely even knowing me.

She will be deeply missed.
