“ I was privileged to serve as Dr. Ishler's graduate assistant from 1975-77 at Univ of Toledo. He chaired my dissertation committee and my wife and I traveled to Europe with him in 1976. In every way and at all times, he was the consummate gentleman. I've never worked for a more compassionate and altruistic boss. My deepest sympathy to his family.

“ Ann and Maryann, Gail and I were so saddened by Dick's death. I enjoyed working with him as a fellow dean at USC. I was always impressed with his quiet, yet strong leadership as a dean. He made a significant impact on the university in many ways. For example, he was responsible for instigating the hooding ceremony for USC doctoral grads--a wonderful event that still continues. Ann, Gail and I also remember fondly the personal friendship we enjoyed with you and Dick, as well as the relationship between our two daughters. Maryann, it is good to know that although you and Abi are miles apart, your friendship continues. Dick was a wonderful person. He left the world a better place through his professional accomplishments and his personal relationships. May you be comforted by God's grace and your memories of your time together. Frank
