“ I am saddened to hear this news. Life goes by so quickly and all the things we wish we did or said, didn't happen. I have those regrets. We were high school friends and shared many good times. We had a tight group of friends and eventually went many different directions. All I can say is Rick was a good friend who would do anything for you and was always there when you need him. Rest In Peace, my friend. We will meet again.

“ When he married Cathy (my good friend from first grade forward), Rick became part of my extended family. We shared some good times and some great meals at Caruso's and Rick's kitchen. I will miss him and even the twinkle in his eye when he leveled you with that dry Viking wit.

“ I am so saddened to learn of Rick's untimely passing. Although I didn't work directly with him, whenever I had the occasion to work with him on projects at Clariant, I found him to be kind, diligent, sincere and with a dry wit. He was a thoroughly decent person and will be sorely missed. May God provide comfort through this difficult time of transition.
