“ Our Mother was a good judge of character, so she knew Wayne was a character the first time she met him. But, she also knew he was a good man. She entrusted her husband & children to him and a beautiful friendship developed. We grew to appreciate learning to shoot a bow, spending time with family & friends outdoors and to not take oneself too seriously. John & Sallie felt blessed to have Millie & Wayne as friends. We, their children, were blessed to witness that friendship, fellowship and love. RIP Wayne Barefoot! Diane White Cain and John H. White, III
