

Robert Wentworth Cavin, II

October 4, 1950 - March 7, 2026

Robert Wentworth Cavin II, 75, of Huntersville, NC, passed away on Saturday, March 7, 2026.

He was born on October 4, 1950, in Mooresville, NC to the late William A. and Mary Frances Holbrooks Cavin.

Robert was a member of Mt. Zion United Methodist Church where he enjoyed singing in the choir.

His favorite TV shows were Gunsmoke and Andy Griffith.

He will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a nephew, Steven Cavin.

Those left to cherish Robert's memory are his loving wife of 48 years, Faye Kiser Cavin; brother, Bill Cavin (Wanda); sisters, Mary Nell Coblentz (Alex), Liz Fisher (Robert), Linda Alden (John); numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 pm on Tuesday, March 10th at Mt. Zion United Methodist Church, Cornelius with Rev. Alex Coblentz and Pastor

Brittany Morris officiating. Burial will follow the service in the church cemetery.

The family will receive friends prior to the service from 12:00 pm - 2:00 pm at the church.

Memorials may be made to Mt. Zion UMC Music Department or the cemetery fund, 19600 Zion Ave, Cornelius, NC 28031.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home, Mooresville, is proudly serving the Cavin family.

“ Seen Bobby just about every day when dad ran the Dogwood. Bobby would say dad had the first nickel he ever made and called him and old miser. What good times. Thoughts and prayers to all the Cavin family I know he will be deeply missed. Ken Keller and family
