“ My earliest memory of Robbie was when I was 4-5 years old. We lived in Mr Rubin’s rental house and there was a path through the pasture to their home. We were playing in the pasture and Robbie had a BB gun. And yes, you guessed it, ... he shot me! Thank goodness he laid down his gun for a fishing rod! Robbie, I hope you hatch a big one!!!

“ Two great memories of Robert Davison. These are personal. He was teaching me to drive a truck about the first week. We were going to Charlotte down 77 come upon a school bus around school bus no problem looked over and Robbie looking at me. He said I was a bad truck driver, not exactly what he said but he said every kid on that bus says you’re a bad truck driver I said what do you mean he said everyone wanted you to blow that horn you drove right by that’s why he called me a bad truck driver type man he was a funny story about Robbie going to Statesville to get parts Linda got a hold of him somehow I don’t remember how needed a new tire . So we tied the tire on top of the Volkswagen. This is a truck tire.. come up to the end of Bethesda Road to Amity Hill Road Robbie catches a gear don’t stop stop sign keeps on rolling i said there’s a highway patrolman behind us. He gets a little worried he says I wonder why he hasn’t pulled us , I said well you got an elephant in the front seat a truck tire tied on top of a Volkswagen. He’s laughing too hard ! I love you brother you will be missed !!!!

Robbie was one of the Early people that I met when I moved to years ago. I didn't know anyone, but always look forward to seeing his smiling face and kind words. And have seen him demonstrate the true person that he was time and time again by his actions. Kind, loving, encouraging, supportive, forgiving, and, always full of hope. A remarkable man and a great teammate with Lynda. Rest in peace friend, Keeping Linda and the family Close in our hearts and prayers. God bless. Scott and Suzanne Ramsey.
